"No Soap, No Pay, Diarrhea, Dysentery & Desertion"

By JEFF TOALSON

7:00PM TUESDAY, JANUARY 26, 2010

--STRYKER BUILDING--

Williamsburg, Virginia

Note we will be at Stryker Building at 412 N. Boundary St., Williamsburg

Jeff Toalson will be telling stories of the last 16 months of the Confederacy from his first book - "No Soap, No Pay, Diarrhea, Dysentery & Desertion". These will be stories from the common soldiers and civilians as written in their diaries, letters and journals. Jeff Toalson, a 23 year resident of Williamsburg, has a B. S.

in Business Management from Missouri State University. He is a regular speaker at roundtables, historical societies, SCV Camps, UDC Chapters and National Park Battlefields. Jeff is the author of two books on the WBTS: "Send Me a Pair of Old Boots & Kiss My Little Girls - The Civil War Letters of Richard and Mary Watkins, 1861-1865", which was published in 2009, and his first book . . . from which he is telling stories tonight . . ." No Soap, No Pay, Diarrhea, Dysentery & Desertion - A Composite Diary of the Last 16 Months of the Confederacy".

DECEMBER MEETING: It was our Holiday meeting/celebration where a fine program and good fellowship were shared. Cheryl Jackson, Executive Director of the Virginia Sesquicentennial of the American Civil War Commission, spoke about planning the statewide commemoration of the 150th anniversary of the Civil War. Her duties include planning and implementation of Commission programs, activities, and meetings; oversight of a multi-million dollar budget and fundraising initiatives; serving as Commission liaison on the local, state, and national levels; and supervision of public relations and marketing. budget, and fundraising initiatives.

DUES. Membership in the Williamsburg Civil War Roundtable is open to all. The annual dues for membership are $25 for an individual and $30 for a family living in the same household. Use the attached Membership form and mail or pay at the meeting.
